

Indiana residents freely choose to be on the state no call list.
FCC should respect this choice, and refuse to weaken Indiana's
Telephone Privacy Law.